

A Christian's Creed for 21st Century

I am a Christian.

I am a Warrior for Christ.

I am a member of a team of Christian soldiers.

I serve the church of Christ and members of that church.

My mission is to promote sexual purity.

I will challenge others to accept the difficulty of this mission.

I must never accept defeat.

I will not allow Satan to take me down or watch as he takes down another brother or sister. I will speak up.

This is my mission for life. I will never give up on this mission.

I will work to make the comrades around me successful. I will never give up on one person who slips.

I am being trained, and training others, in sexual thought purity.

I will work on growth, accountability and community.

I will take this challenge as eternally significant.

I will identify my enemy, Satan, and I will stand against him.

I will challenge others to walk in the freedom Christ offers.

I am a Christian...
